PUBLIC SALE.

ON Friday, the 19th. October, we will sell to the highest bidder, on the premises, the one mile south of Ridgeway, on R. & G. R. R. in Warren county, the residence of the late Dr. H. L. Plummer.

The tract will be divided—one, including houses, contains 600 acres, well adapted to the growth of wheat, tobacco, corn &c., with an adequate quantity of wood land, original growth, and a larger proportion of highly improved lot land than any other farm in the county. Also, a fair proportion of bottom land on a creek, running entirely through the tract.

THE DWELLING

is a good two-story house, with 7 rooms; good cabins, with stone chimneys; excellent frame barns, good granary, stables, &c. Also, a good

Orchard of Choice Winter Fruit.

The other tract, on the same road, contains 350 acres, 50 of which is good bottom land, on Fishing Creek, and sufficient wood for fences and fuel, but no house except a barn. Both tracts are in good condition. Dr. Plummer never made less than 17 bushels wheat per acre on these farms—frequently more.

The locality is as healthy and the neighborhood as refined as any in the State. It is in every respect desirable, and it is seldom such a place is offered at auction. One of the subscribers resides on the place, and will show it to any one wishing to see it. Possession will be given 1st. January, but the privilege of seeding wheat granted immediately.

We Will Also Sell

12 head fat Cattle, 20 head Sheep, 50 barrels old Corn, a good Wheat Thrasher, capable of getting out 300 bushels Wheat per day;

Two Wheat Reapers,

SOME EXCELLENT SEED WHEAT, AND OTHER ARTICLES.

TERMS—For land, one-fifth cash; the balance in equal payments of 1 and 2 years, bonds well secured, with interest from date—title held until land is paid for. Other property, cash. Sale to commence at 11 o'clock.

ASSETS $4,000,000. ASSETS $4,000,000.

SEPT. 1st. 1866.

ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE CO., OF HARTFORD, CONN.

W. H. CROW,

General Agent,

For the State of North Carolina, Petersburg, Va., and surrounding Counties.

IN addition to the loss and prompt payment of Justus Kinseys policy for $5,000, is now added another loss, by the death of J. E. Weeks, of Elizabeth City, N. C. for $5,000, and again promptly settled by the Ætna.

By this practical illustration of the advantages of Life Insurance, it is commended to the confidence and support of every one desirous of providing for surviving loved ones.

As an investment merely, a Life Insurance Policy is as safe an investment of funds as can be made.—The principal, generally, is not only many times in excess of the amount paid, but in a sound company it has no rival for security, and no species of Government bonds are a more desirable investment.

EXCHANGE OF N. C. BONDS FOR STOCKS.

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA,
TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
Raleigh, September 27th. 1866.

The Public are reminded that, in pursuance of an Ordinance of the late Convention, sealed proposals will be received by the undersigned, until 12 M., on the first day of November next, for the exchange of the principal of bonds issued by the State before the 20th. May 1861, for the Stocks held by the State in the various Rail Roads and other Companies, of which the following are the principal:

North Carolina R. R. Co.	$3,000,000,
Raleigh & Gaston R. R. Co.	682,500,
Atlantic & N. C. R. R.	$1,064,000,
Western N. C. R. R. Co,	$1,418,000,
Albemarle and Chesapeake Canal Co.	$ 350,000

No bid less than par will be entertained. Any premiums offered may be applied to payment of the Interest due on the bonds offered in exchange. Bids will be opened in the presence of the Governor and Comptroller, and those will be accepted most advantageous to the State.

Purchasers of preferred stock will not obtain rights greater than holders of stocks not preferred.

In consequence of the bonds and liens, held by the State on various Rail Road Companies, having been in part executed during the late war, I have concluded not to offer them for exchange until the reception of special instructions from the General Assembly.

I have deferred the time of opening bids in order that parties interested might have opportunity of examining the reports of the various Companies for the present year, which no doubt can be obtained from the proper officers of the Companies.

INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS.

Scientific men, who thoroughly understand the subject, concur with great unanimity in saying that nothing exerts such a deleterious influence against health as bad bread. The remedy is at hand in SIMPSON'S INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS, the value of which is thus certified:

RALEIGH, Aug. 24, 1866.

I have tested the Yeast Powders you manufacture and can recommend them as vastly superior to any other ever used by me. In addition to the lightness and sweetness of the bread, the powders are economical, as one-third the lard usually required will answer in the making of either loaf bread or biscuit. For pastries and cakes they are excellent.

VIRGINIA A. ORR.

The price of these powders per package is 25 cts. or 75 cts. per pound. To be had at Wm. Simpson's Confectionary Store, Fayetteville Street, Raleigh, N. C.

RALEIGH, Aug. 23, 1866.

This is to certify that I have used Mr. Simpson's Yeast Powders and find them to be superior to any I have ever used. After trying them once no housekeeper will be satisfied without them.

MRS. S. D. HARRISON.

RALEIGH, Aug. 23, 1866.

I have tried Mr. Wm. Simpson's Yeast Powders and find them very good.

The election takes place to-morrow. We trust that a full vote may be polled in Raleigh. Let us give no doubtful utterance! Let us roll up such a majority for Gov. Worth, and against the Howard amendment, as will reflect credit upon the Capital of the State! LET EVERYMAN VOTE!

The Election Returns.

We shall be obliged to our friends, all over the State, to send us the earliest election returns from the several Counties.

The Cotton Crop—Our Duty.

Doubt no longer exists that the cotton crop both in this State and the South will be much shorter than was at one time anticipated. The temper of the cotton market indicates that the short crop will yield a large income of greenbacks.

There are few points, east of a line drawn through the State running North and South through this city, where cotton cannot be produced finely. Edgecombe, where the plant is better cultivated, perhaps, than elsewhere, is the banner cotton County; but we can see no reason why Halifax, Martin, Pitt, part of Beaufort, Wilson, Greene, Lenoir, Wayne, Craven, Jones, Onslow, Duplin, Sampson, Bladen, Robeson, Richmond and Anson cannot be made its equal in all respects. Indeed, the good lands of the North-East counties, as well as Tyrrell, Hyde, Carteret and the lower parts of Beaufort and Craven, and the counties of Warren, Granville, Franklin, Nash, Wake, Johnson, and Cumberland, have shown a fine adaptation to the culture of cotton. What is most needed is the right quality and quantity of labor and the skillful manuring and management of the crop. The plant is far less liable to disease in this State, where it is properly cultivated, than any of the cotton States, and its cultivation for a term of years will be found to be as remunerative as in most of the Southern States.

We hope, therefore, that the next year will show an improvement in the quantity of land and its cultivation upon the present. Our people have doled and worried enough over their National difficulties. The North seems bent upon giving the South no voice in National affairs before the next Presidential election at least, if, by any possibility, they can keep the Southern States out of their constitutional rights. We have accepted in good faith the terms of reconciliation which have been proposed to us. Those terms were as harsh, as onerous, and as ruinous to the South, as a people with the least sense of humanity, justice or magnanimity could ask, or as any people, with any remains of self respect and honor, could accept. Such an instance of universal, quiet acquiescence in a fate so hard and damaging forced upon eight millions of people, acknowledged by the world to be a brave and noble people, history does not record. These hard terms, almost the utter destruction of the wealth of the South, the loss of almost the means and the prospect of future prosperity, we say, were accepted and faithfully fulfilled on our part, as conditions of reconciliation with the government and the Northern people. The South has done her part. Many of those at the North who fought us hardest, and were most deeply injured, are willing to forgive and forget, and are satisfied with what we have done. But with the dominant party, many of whom share as largely the guilt of involving us in the war, as any portion of the people of the South, the thirst for blood and treasure and power, and the degradation of the people of the South, is not satisfied. The South has sworn fidelity to the Constitution and the Union and has pledged its sacred honor to its fulfilment. Nay, by our own votes we have removed all the causes of the war, thus preventing forever its repetition, and yet the North is not satisfied. It, the dominant party, wants further indemnity and further humiliations, by which all the political power of the South will be forever destroyed, and by which we shall be placed under the control of a Congress, in which we can have no potential voice, even in the management of the internal affairs of the States themselves. Shall we become agents ourselves in effecting our own ruin and disgrace? Shall we vote for amendments to the Constitution, which are to bind us hand and foot forever? No! no! never.

We have done our duty in this matter. Let us continue to do it. Let us maintain with punctilious fidelity our sacred pledges, obey the laws and submit with patience and courage to the harder lot which may come upon us, and to the chains which are forged for us, till God gives us deliverance. But let not the organic law of the land, which authorises the imposition of greater hardships, be changed or amended by our consent or by our own votes.

Let us quietly labor and exert ourselves to make cotton and corn and wheat and our implements of husbandry and mechanism. Indeed, let us strain every nerve to live by our own toil and efforts, to support and educate our families; and, if greater ruin and death come, let us be ready for them, and go down to our graves with our honor unsullied and our good names untarnished by acts of cowardice and self-destruction.

A North Carolina Precedent.

The Charlotte Democrat publishes a letter from a gentleman in Texas to a friend in Mecklenburg, in which the writer says:

"I have often read, since the termination of this war, in "Ramsay's Annals of Tennessee," the account there given of the separation of East Tennessee from North Carolina. I have sometimes thought of writing President Johnson, giving him an account of the magnanimity of North Carolina, his native State, to John Sevier and other leading spirits of his adopted State. The struggle lasted about as long as ours. The chief revolter, John Sevier, and Governor of the insurrectionary State, ostracised by special enactment, was magnanimously admitted to his seat in the Senate of the mother State."

This is veritable history. In December 1784, a Convention of delegates from what were known as the counties of Washington, Sullivan and Greene, embracing enough territory to make several large States and all belonging to the then State of North Carolina, met at Jonesboro, seceded from North Carolina, and formed a Constitution for the State of Frankland. Gov. Caswell, then Chief Magistrate of North Carolina, was not of a temper to brook such high-handed measures, and issued a proclamation against the "rebels," in which (as we learn from Wheeler) he warned all persons concerned in the revolt to return to their duty and allegiance, and declared the spirit of North Carolina was not so damped, or her resources so exhausted, that means, even to blood, would not be resorted to to reclaim her refractory citizens and preserve her dignity and honor.

The State of Frankland disregarded the admonition, and proceeded to elect officers of State, levy taxes, appropriate money, erect new counties, and exercise all the powers and prerogatives of a sovereign State. In other words it became a de facto government, to all intents and purposes.

This state of things, with frequent minor collisions and border raids, continued until the latter part of the year 1787, when the State of Frankland yielded to financial pressure, stronger than that of physical coercion, and was numbered among the things that were. Allegiance was promptly renewed to the old government and delegates chosen to the State Legislature, which met that year in Tarboro.

Up to this point the parallel seems almost complete between the history of the years 1784-'8 and 1861-'5, except in the magnitude and intensity of events; but here, to the reproach of modern political progress, and nineteenth-century-magnanimity, humanity and sagacity, the parallel terminates. The delegates from the defunct State of Frankland were cordially welcomed back to the fold, figuratively the fatted calf was killed, and an era of good feeling and harmony, the stronger for the temporary alienation, ensued, and continued until the formation of the State of Tennessee out of the territory of North Carolina by voluntary cession. The very next year, even, John Sevier himself, who had been Governor of the insurgent State, and the life and soul of the "rebellion," (for he was a brave and headstrong man,) was elected to the General Assembly of North Carolina, and on appearing at the migratory capital, (Fayetteville, 1789,) the Legislature passed an act repealing the section disqualifying him from office, and, on his taking the oath of allegiance, (no test-oath was required,) he was allowed to take his seat!

This is a good record for our honest old State and puts to the blush modern political enlightenment and moral progress. As men have become more cultivated in the arts and sciences, and better versed in the so-called philosophy of government, they seem to have become also less humane, less charitable and less forgiving. The world, in a word, grows worse as it grows older, if American civilization is the test of advancement!

Spirit of the State Press.

The Wilmington Journal is discussing the subject of repudiation, though very properly reluctant to allude to the question, when the mere agitation of it is calculated seriously to affect the credit of the State. This consideration, alone, has deterred us from that full ventilation of the subject, which we shall give at the proper time. Meauwhile, we set down this proposition as a fixed fact: North Carolina will never, of her own free and voluntary motion, or as long as she can raise the means to pay, refuse to discharge any honest obligation. Her people will never consent to such a stigma upon her heretofore stainless escutcheon. The Journal concludes its judicious and sensible observations as follows:

"It is thus manifestly seen that no relief can be obtained through this doctrine of repudiation, and it is useless and foolish to attempt to deceive the people by holding out such false lights, that will only revert back upon its advocates. Nay, it is something more than useless and foolish; it is disreputable and dishonorable. While we sympathize with the people in their prostration and ruin, we feel pride in their honesty and integrity, and would not see relief, as great a boon as it is, purchased at the cost of reputation and honor. Repudiation, were it practicable, we would regard as the worst evil which could possibly befall a community."

The Newbern papers dwell with emphasis upon the insecurity of property in that city.—Another fire has occurred since the great conflagration, which is said to be manifestly of incendiary origin, without any clue being obtainable as to the perpetrator. Unless some assurance of a change is speedily given in the matter, the Commercial apprehends great injury to the business interests of the city.

The Williamston Expositor predicts a bright future for that town. Our friend Williams, who is of a sanguine and hopeful temperament, sees, en clairvoyance, an embryo Wilmington on the Roanoke, where Williamston now stands. Well, if such is ever to be, energy, resolution and enterprize are what will accomplish it, and so we like the Expositor's pluck on the subject. It says:

"We have a fine water communication, and now, we lack a railroad, which will bring here for shipment the products of the interior. We also need a turnpike road to the highlands of Bertie. Give us those two works and what Wilmington is to-day, our word for it, Williamston will be in less than a decade of years."

The Charlotte Times advocates an improvement of the modern system of school literature. Its criticisms upon existing imperfections are well taken, and it very properly contends that what we need now are books written plainly, simply and concisely. For primary purposes, the recent publications of Prof. Sterling strike us as admirably adapted in these important respects. Besides, they are, of course, entirely free from the objection which attaches to many of the late Northern school-books, which, from history (so called) down to horn-books, are tinctured with a sectional hue and with unwarrantable and disingenuous reflections upon the South, in connection with the late struggle.—We hope that our instructors of youth will closely examine all such before placing them in the hands of their pupils, and reject all that are obnoxious in the respect referred to.

PETROLEUM.—The discovery of Petroleum in North Western Virginia, and in other States, continues to be made. Perhaps no recent discovery has contributed so largely and rapidly to the increase of wealth and to the growth of population in the immediate neighborhoods.

We cannot doubt that Petroleum can be found in large quantities in the coal regions of this State, and perhaps at other points. The Petroleum and Mining Company, whose office is located at Greensboro', have in possession a number of sites and much mining land, we believe, but to what extent they have yet pushed their researches after Petroleum we are not authentically advised.

The rich coal and iron mining interests on Deep river have not yet been fully developed, for the want of sufficient capital and enterprise, and the lack of proper facilities for transportation. The character of the coal and its highly inflammable qualities in that section indicate the existence of Petroleum, or some other similar substance, lying in the region of the lower strata of the coal beds. The shafts or wells sunk have perhaps not been deep enough to reach it, and we have heard of no attempts at boring in that region. Why should not the trial be fully made, both on Deep river and among the coal beds in Rockingham, at an early day? Treasures of immense wealth doubtless lie hidden beneath the soil of our State, which it only requires energy and enterprise to develope.

During the war H. E. Colton, Esq., of Fayetteville, successfully proved that Kerosene could be made largely from the coal beds of Deep river. We have heard nothing recently of his efforts. We hope the various Mining Companies in the State, or other agencies, may speedily solve the question as to the existence of Petroleum. We need something besides cotton to set in motion the energy and enterprise of the people. But until that something is made palpable, we hope that the best efforts of our people will be directed, more largely than ever, to bringing out the agricultural resources of the State.

The Radicals do not seem altogether pleased with the recent elections. The N. Y. Times says:

"The results of the late elections show very clearly that the contest has been almost precisely as it was two years ago, between the Democratic and the Union parties. The differences between Congress and the President have no perceptible influence upon the party divisions of the past four or five years."

The Boston Advertiser admits its own chagrin, but attempts to divide it. It says:

"Both parties, we suspect, feel a degree of disappointment at the result of Tuesday's elections. The followers of the President have learned how cruel a blow it is to have even the hope secretly cherished against hope finally destroyed. The supporters of Congress have to regret that the condemnation of the President's policy, sufficient as it was for all practical purposes, was not even more emphatic."

The Baltimore Election.

[From the Gazette.]

Yesterday the form of a popular election was gone through in Baltimore. In theory, a free people was engaged in an act of self-government, and a stranger in our midst might have wondered at, and probably have applauded, the quiet working of democratic system and republican institutions. In point of fact, an insignificant minority here, backed by the authorities and an armed police, who were installed in power by the bayonets of the Federal Government, held the ballot boxes in their own hands and arbitrarily excluded from all the privileges of citizenship those who had ventured in the past five years to entertain political opinions different from those advocated by the dominant faction. Some five or six years ago the voting population of Baltimore numbered some thirty five thousand. Yesterday there were but seven thousand, nine hundred and seventy-nine votes cast, of which five thousand, four hundred and five were given to the ultra Radical candidate, Mr. J. L. CHAPMAN, who is thus made Mayor of a city containing over three hundred thousand inhabitants.

The Philadelphia Press, speaking of the false telegram which stated that the President had asked the Attorney General's opinion as to the constitutional character of the present Congress, says:

"Had it not been repudiated, or had it been avowed by Andrew Johnson, it is not too much to say that the loyal States would have instantly put themselves in military array."

We do not quote the above for comment, but merely to put it on record. Since the late triumph, Forney does not care to measure words. A mere inquiry, which surely the President has the legal and constitutional right to make, would be resisted by arms, by those who talk about nothing but treason and traitors!—Rich. Enquirer.

A. Ward has a long letter in Punch describing his visit to Shakespeare's tomb. The best thing in it is the following:

"Some kind person has sent me Chawcer's Poems. Mr. C. had talent, but he couldn't spel. No man has a right to be a lit'rary man onless he knows how to spel. It is a pity that Chawcer, who had geneyus, was so unedicated. He's the wuss speller I know of."

Louis Kossuth, the Hungarian patriot, old and worn, is now a dependent upon the world's charity.

From the New York Watchman.

Bishop Green and Mr. Davis.

The Right Rev. Bishop Green, of Mississippi, recently spent a day with his friend Jefferson Davis at Fortress Monroe. As erroneous statements of what passed in that interview have been given in some of the papers, we are permitted by the Bishop to state that, while at Fortress Monroe, he was introduced to a gentleman by Mr. Davis, and informed that he was a man of great learning, and worthy of the confidence of all who knew him. If that gentleman entertained any design of going to Washington to intercede for the release of Mr. Davis, the Bishop does not recollect that anything of the kind was ever hinted at during the few moments in which they were together. Much less did the Bishop think of going himself on such an errand; for although willing to make any sacrifice for the good of one whom he so highly esteems as Mr. Davis, he had not the vanity to suppose that any request, however feelingly urged by him, would be of the least avail where the prayers of thousands had been set aside.—He would also have been deterred from such a step by his own strong conviction that President Johnson is of himself, and without further solicitation, disposed to deal in all fairness and magnanimity toward his noble prisoner. Bishop Green was pleased to learn that no unpleasant personal relations existed between Mr. Johnson and Mr. Davis at the commencement of the war. An occasional sparring had taken place between them in the Senate, but not of a nature to interrupt their intercourse.

Mr. Davis is not disposed to say much about his health. He is very feeble, his appetite much impaired, and his frame greatly emaciated. Mrs. Davis seems convinced that he cannot live three months longer if he remains in his present confinement. He attributes his comparative health, if not life itself, to the presence of his wife and his little Varina, a prattler of two years old. Bishop Green is also pleased to unite his acknowledgements with those of his imprisoned friend to General H. S. Burton, now in command of Fortress Monroe, for his kind and gentlemanly treatment of his prisoner. Whilst faithfully carrying out the duties of his office, he seeks to abate every annoyance which would increase the discomfort of Mr. Davis, without adding anything to the safe-keeping of his person. Mr. Davis is especially indebted to him for the removal of the light which has so long disturbed his rest, and for spreading a thick matting on three sides of his prison chamber to deaden the night-long tramp of his guards. It is enough to excite a smile to see all this caution against the prisoner's escape, when every one knows that if the gates of that magnificent fortress were left wide open, and every soldier put to sleep, he would make no effort to leave the place on any terms but such as would be in keeping with his past reputation.

At sunrise his prison-door is thrown open, and he rejoins his wife in the comfortable quarters within the fortress which she is permitted to occupy. During the day he is allowed the range of the fortress for exercise, and returns to his prison at sundown. Several hours a day are spent in reading, of which his Bible always forms a part. He is permitted to receive and read the newspapers without restriction.

It was a pleasure to the Bishop to take by the hand again one whom he is proud to call his friend, but it was particularly gratifying to see the truly Christian spirit in which Mr. Davis looks upon both the past and the present. His belief in a Divine Providence remains unshaken by the events of the last few years, and he cheerfully trusts to the same protection and guidance the future of his country. So far as human instrumentality can contribute to the happiness of that future, he thinks it must come from an honest and zealous maintenance of the Constitution. Mr. Davis expressed much gratification at the visit of any minister, and particularly of "his Bishop," from whom he requested some religious service before they parted.

As many and very false representations have gone forth on the subject of his capture, it will be gratifying to the friends of Mr. Davis to learn, in this way, that no attempt whatever was made by him to escape at the time he was taken, and that the only outer garment that covered him was his dressing gown, which he threw around him as he sprang from his bed to meet his captors at the door of his tent. The whole amount of gold, too, which he had with him at the time, was seven dollars and fifty cents, a part of the proceeds of the sale of Mrs. Davis's wardrobe and jewelry.

We deem it due to Bishop Green to add, that the above statement is given with no little reluctance, as it may look like an exposure of what came to his knowledge in a social and unreserved interview with Mr. Davis. He would never, of his own accord, have placed this statement before the eyes of a greedy public. But seeing that certain newspaper correspondents have undertaken to say for him things which he has never said, he desires the above to go forth as a matter of self-defense, and wishes all other statements on this subject, which are imputed to him, to be considered unworthy of credit.

BEWARE of "amendments to the Constitution," made by Party and in Passion. The precedent set to-day becomes the Common Law of the country. A party in power excluding ten States of the Union, through State Legislatures, may amend the Constitution to-day, and another party in power, excluding six New England States, may amend the Constitution some coming year, upon the precedents established now.—(N. Y. Express.)

OURS NOT A REPUBLICAN GOVERNMENT.—We have several times alluded to the fact that a minority of the people of these United States are now ruling the country. We are pleased to find that the New York Journal of Commerce, one of the most staid and respectable journals in the country, and the organ of the mercantile classes of that city, has had its attention attracted to the same mortifying fact. It says:

"It is plain enough that the majority of the citizens of the United States are opposed to the course taken by Congress, and in favor of the policy of the President. Half the people of the North and all the people of the South are agreed in this. On the other hand, it is plain that the minority of the people, and a very decided minority at that, now rule, and will continue to rule the country. It is not a rule of the majority under which the inhabitants of the United States are to live."

According to Blackstone there is no wrong for which the law of England does not afford a remedy. We are worse off than the people of England, and must submit to the rule of the miserable Radicals.

From the New York World.

Now for New York! Remember, Democrats, that by half trying we can elect Hoffman Governor by a splendid majority, and carry the larger part of the Congressmen from this State. All through the contest it has been conceded that New York was in doubt unless the Radicals carried Pennsylvania by 25,000 majority. As their majority cannot exceed 10,000, it shows heavy gains for the right side, and insures our success beyond all preadventure in this State. To work, Democrats! to work!

Impeaching the President—An Honest Republican View.

From the Chicago Republican, (Republican.)

The public press have come to agitate as one of the common topics of the hour the impeachment of President Johnson. There are very few who regard his impeachment as probable, and a good many would doubt whether it is even politically practicable, i. e., whether two thirds of both Houses of Congress, under any conceivable contingency, would resort to so grave a remedy. The agitation about impeachment principally emanates from two classes of journals: those Radical journals which hurl the threat at the President as a mere means of making their editorials sensational, and sustaining their claims to the most advanced Radical position; and those Administration, Democratic, Copperhead, or rebel journals who likewise spice their editorials by charging the Republican party at large with a design to impeach and remove the President for party purposes.

It may be safely assumed that no political party will seek to impeach any President of the United States for party ends, simply because such an end would break down any political party that had not the gravest and most patriotic ends in view. So far from an impeachment of a President being a step which could aid any political party, it would require to be based on the strongest and most patriotic grounds of justice and public welfare to enable a political party to bear up under the necessary odium of such an act. It may safely be assumed, therefore, that a Radical Congress, if it had nothing but party ends in view, instead of seeking an excuse for impeaching President Johnson, would dread nothing so much as a state of facts which would render his impeachment necessary. We are sure that such a prospect would fill every Republican in and out of Congress with a far deeper grief than any rebel or copperhead could have reason to feel. These might possibly rejoice at it as a means of weakening the Republican party, while no man who voted for Andrew Johnson for Vice President could fail to bow his head in shame and sorrow over the President's disgrace and the nation's humiliation.

The checks the Constitution throws around the subject of impeachment are far less effective than those with which it is invested by the honor and self-respect of the Republican majority in Congress. Long after a voting majority of two-thirds, or of four-fifths, might be obtained by the Republican party in either House, and long after the President might have committed secondary misdemeanors or violations of law, as he did in appointing rebels to Federal office in contempt of plain acts of Congress forbidding it, which, within the strict letter of the Constitution, would render his impeachment legal, long after any and all abuses which did not actually revolutionize the Government and overturn the Constitution had been committed, Congress would bear and forbear, without proceeding to the dread remedy with which the Constitution itself invests them.

There will be a meeting of the stockholders of the "N. C. Vol. Navy Co.," in Greensboro, on the 26th inst.

Further arrivals: J. Brown (with Hart & Lewis.)

WE ARE encouraged by recent accessions to our subscription list. The Legislature of the State meets next month, and Congress on the first Monday in December. Stirring events are a-foot. We do not see how any man, in these days, can dispense with a newspaper; and it shall be the aim of the Sentinel to be a faithful mirror of the times. Now that the State election is virtually over, we shall endeavor greatly to diversify our columns.

PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH.—At a meeting of the Standing Committee of the diocese of North Carolina, held in Raleigh, on the 15th inst., the following extract of a letter recently received from Bishop Atkinson was read:

"My health has improved so much, that I no longer consider my case one contemplated by the canons which allow a Bishop an assistant. I think, therefore, the choice of one by the diocesan convention at its adjourned meeting, if such a choice were made, would be inoperative, and that consequently, as the meeting would be a source of trouble and expense, it would be best to have it postponed to the next annual Convention."

Upon which it was,

Resolved, That, in the opinion of the Standing Committee, it is advisable that the contemplated Convention of the Diocese in November be indefinitely postponed.

Resolved, That the Church Intelligencer, and the secular newspapers friendly to the Episcopal Church, be requested to publish this notice.

GOVERNOR WORTH.—We were honored with a call yesterday from his Excellency, Governor Worth. The Governor has been in the city for the last few days, having been summoned here by the illness of his wife, who is on a visit to her son, Mr. D. G. Worth. We are glad to announce that Mrs. Worth is so far recovered as to be able to return to Raleigh, which she expects to do to-day.—Wilmington Journal, October 16th.

N. C. CHRISTIAN CONFERENCE. This ecclesiastical body as stated on yesterday, assembled at O'Kelly's Chapel, Chatham County, on Wednesday the 10th. inst., and continued in session four days, transacting much important business. The plan for an improved form of government, a fuller declaration of principles and directions for worship, adopted by the General Convention held last May, was presented by Rev. W. B. Wellons, President of the Convention, and unanimously adopted. The reports from the Churches were very encouraging. Interesting reports on Sabbath Schools, Temperance, and other subjects, were presented and discussed.—The Conference was divided, the body with its present ratio of representation being too large to meet with most of the country Churches.

The following are the Districts and appointments:

Tar River, J W Wellons; Dan River, J N Manning; Midway, A Apple; Pleorin's Spring, W H Franks; Bethlehem and Salem, A Iseley; Graham, E W Beale and Wm. S Long; Shallow Well, Ro. G Tinnen; Pleorin's Union, C A Boon; O'Kelley's, Thos. J Fowler and Jno. W Hatch; Concord, A G Anderson; Antioch, J N Farrell; Mt. Bethel, Wm. D Maffit; Newbern, H B Hayes; Union and Lebanon Districts unsupplied.

The Conference adjourned late on Saturday night. On the Sabbath, a large congregation was in attendance and interesting discourses were delivered.

ARRIVALS AT THE EXCHANGE HOTEL, Oct. 16.—G. Rosenthal, N. C.; B. Marshall, Miss Marshall and Miss Hall, La.; Geo. Dowden, Baltimore; W. A. Philpott, Oxford; John T. Dewuse, U. S. A.; Dr. L. Friuk, Smithville; B. H. Allen, Oxford; Mrs. Hester, Charleston, S. C.; Thomas Spencer, Richmond, Va.; Mrs. Beckwith, Smithfield; W. J. Ramsey and wife, Pittsboro; W. H. S. Burgwin and T. B. McRae, N. C.; W. S. Marler, Yadkinville; H. C. Baker, East Bend.

PACKING COTTON.—The press is calling the attention of planters to the necessity of more care in packing cotton. Bagging weighs two and one-fourth pounds per yard, and sells on the bale at the price of cotton; it costs about forty cents per yard, and sells on the bale for nearly double. What folly then, in planters, to stint the use of bagging in properly protecting the bale of cotton. And yet, for the want of such protection, cotton often actually suffers in classification and price for this very reason. It is to the farmer's own interest that the fibre should be protected from dirt and stain by a liberal use of bagging.—Wil. Dispatch.

THE LAST NINETY DAYS OF THE WAR.—It is gratifying to learn that the announcement of this publication is received with such favor. Two public-spirited gentlemen of the South, one of whom has a national reputation, and the other a high position, have written us that they will make a handsome advance of several hundred dollars before its appearance, to secure its publication in proper style.—New York Watchman.

MR. Benson J. Lossing, the celebrated pictorial publisher, accompanied by a corps of artists, is visiting the battle-fields and other memorable places in the Shenandoah Valley and obtaining pictures for an illustrated history of the late war.

GENERAL NEWS.

NEVADA.—A writer in the Boston Advertiser says "the population of Nevada has been steadily diminishing for the past twelve months, until to-day it is quite safe to estimate the entire number of people, excluding Indians, within the limits of the State, as less than twenty-five thousand."

This important State sends two radical Senators to Washington, to deny North Carolina her rights.

The President himself, now that the elections have gone, and are going, against his policy, is less discouraged than any one of his Cabinet adviser. He seems to consider the result as one that affords promise for conservative triumph in future. Though Congress will resist his policy and sustain their own by a two-thirds' vote, in both Houses, till the end of his term, still he thinks the patriotism of the people may be relied upon, and that it will support him in any difficulties that may occur.

The Virginia Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church South will hold its annual meeting at Norfolk, commencing on the 21st of November next. The session, it is expected, will be one of great interest, as questions of much importance in regard to certain changes in the policy of the Church will come up for the consideration and action of the Conference.

A lawyer of well known mendacity claimed with characteristic effrontery and indiscretion in trial at law, that he 'reverenced the truth;' to which his opponent replied that he entertained such an awful reverence for the truth that he always stood at long distance from it.

The plan of General Tochman to settle a colony of Poles in Charles county, Maryland, has failed. Efforts are now being made to procure lands for their settlement in Virginia.

Horseflesh is becoming all the fashion in Paris. Those who indulge in that particular edible call themselves "hippophagists"—or horse eaters.—Horse will get to be the main food. The aristocratic families will no doubt eat it so as to "feel their oats." Will the butchers be likely to sell saddles of horses, as they do of mutton?

In Loudoun and Fauquier county, Va., they are making oil from sassafras root, for which they obtain forty dollars a gallon. It is said to be a sure cure for rheumatism, sprains, &c.

Trial of Mr. Davis.

The National Intelligencer of yesterday says:

"We do not see how the trial can well take place before next spring. The Chief Justice will be engaged in the Supreme Court for several months after the opening of Congress, and it will scarcely be practicable for him to hold a session of the Circuit Court at Richmond until after the adjournment of the Supreme Court.

We are glad to ascertain, as we do from the correspondence, that the charges of complicity with the assassination are abandoned. We never had any faith in these charges. We have regretted very much that Mr. Holt's zeal in this branch hurried him into steps in reference to procuring the testimony of Conover and others; which, to say the least of it, have served to wound Mr. Holt more than Mr. Davis.

That Mr. Davis was a rebel is beyond dispute; that he was an assassin appears to be an infamous and unfounded calumny."

DR. J. J. CRAVEN APPOINTED POSTMASTER AT NEWARK.—The Newark Courier of Saturday says:

"Our citizens were somewhat surprised this morning by the announcement that Dr. Craven, author of "Prison Life of Jeff. Davis," had been appointed postmaster at Newark."

WHO CAN TELL

How much suffering comes from Diseased Livers?—Let parents read the following, and remember that these Pills are safe for the most delicate ladies:—

Wm. Carraway, Esq., Wayne Co., N. C. (Sept. 1, 1862, says: "I have used the Southern Hepatic Pills in my family. My daughter was in very bad health from disorder of the liver for the space of three years, hardly having had a week without suffering. She took the Pills regularly and strictly according to the directions on the wrapper, and her health has been entirely restored by them. I have used them with great benefit among my servants on the plantation, and can recommend them as a safe and useful family medicine."

A New and Grand Epoch in Medicine!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so-called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggil's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble, it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disinfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is announced that Maggiel's Billious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhoea Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin, Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 11 Pine St., New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box.

A New Era In Medicine!

☞ Let the Suffering and Diseased read the following.

☞ Let all who have been given up by Doctors, and spoken of as incurable, read the following.

☞ Let all who can believe facts and can have faith in evidence, read the following:

Know all men by these presents, That on this, the Twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-Six, personally came Joseph Haydock to me, known as such, and being duly sworn, deposed as follows: That he is the sole general agent for the United States, and dependencies thereof, for preparations or medicines known as MAGGIEL'S PILLS and SALVE, and that the following certificates are verbatim copies to the best of his knowledge and belief.

JAMES SMITTER,
Notary Public,
Wall Street, New York.

June 1, 1866.

DR. MAGGIEL:—I take my pen to write you of my great relief and that the awful pain in my side has left me at last—thanks to your medicine. Oh, doctor, how thankful I am that I can get some sleep. I can never write it enough. I thank you again and again, and am sure that you are really the friend of all sufferers. I could not help writing to you, and hope you will not take it amiss.

JAMES MYERS,
116 Avenue D.

This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with Chronic Diarrhœa, and have been cured by Dr. Maggiel's Pills.

WILSON HARVEY,
New York, April 7, 1865. 27 Pitt Street.

The following is an interesting case of a man employed in an Iron Foundry, who, in pouring melted iron into a flask that was damp and wet, caused an explosion. The melted iron was thrown around and on him in a perfect shower, and he was burnt dreadfully. The following certificate was given to me by him about eight weeks after the accident.

New York, Jan. 11, 1866.

My name is Jacob Hardy; I am an Iron Founder; I was badly burnt by hot iron in November last; my burns healed, but I had a running sore on my leg that would not heal; I tried Maggiel's Salve, and it cured me in a few weeks. This is all true, and any body can now see me at Jackson's Iron Works, 2nd Avenue.

J. HARDY,
119 Geerick Street.

Extract from Various Letters:

"I had no appetite; Maggiel's Pills gave me a hearty one."

"Your Pills are marvelous."

"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."

"Dr. Maggiel has cured my headache that was chronic."

"I gave half of one of your pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."

"My nausea of a morning is now cured."

"Your box of Maggiel's Salve cured me of noises in the head. I rubbed some of your Salve behind my ears and the noise left."

"Send me two boxes; I want one for a poor family."

"I enclose a dollar; your price is twenty-five cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar."

"Send me five boxes of your pills."

"Let me have three boxes of your Salve by return mail."

I have over 200 such Testimonals

As this, but want of space compels me to conclude

EXECUTOR'S SALE OF

DESIRABLE DWELLING, NICE TOWN

LOTS, AND A TRACT OF LAND

Near Warrenton, N. C.

As executor of Dr. Hugh J. Davis, to effect a division among his legatees, I shall sell to the highest bidder, on the 15th day of November, 1866, at his late residence, in the town of Warrenton, N. C., the DWELLING HOUSE and LOT. Also a Lot in front of Dwelling, and a Lot adjoining the Court-House square; and a tract of Land about two miles distant from Warrenton.

The Dwelling is in cottage style, containing ten rooms, and has two basements. Near the centre of the town, surrounded by magnificent oaks, it is in one of the handsomest locations in Warrenton, on a lot of about four and a half acres, having an ample yard and garden well inclosed, with Stables, Kitchen, Smoke House, Dairy, Carriage House, Corn Crib, Servants' House, two good Offices in the yard, a well of excellent water, and is bounded by four streets. This square is sufficiently large, and so arranged as to be divided into two beautiful Building Lots, fronting towards the main part of the town. The Lot in front of the Dwelling is enclosed, contains over an acre, without any building, and is bounded by three streets.

The lot in rear of the Court-House fronts on the street about one hundred and ninety-two (192) feet, and contains about three-fourths of an acre. This lot has a Store, with several rooms, at the north corner, a residence in the centre, with several rooms, and an office with two rooms at the south end.

The tract of Land contains two hundred and eleven acres, in original growth partly, but mostly in second growth pine, and is situated on both sides of the main road to Clark's Bridge. Being so near Warrenton by a good road, this tract is valuable for its fire wood, having been reserved for this purpose, but would make a nice farm.

Possession of Dwelling and Lots given on first of January, 1867, and the tract of Land given up at sale.

TERMS—On the Dwelling, five hundred dollars cash, and on that and the rest of the property a credit of twelve months, from day of possession. Bonds, with satisfactory security, required and title withheld until payment. Inquiries answered.

THE NATIONAL UNION BUSINESS COLLEGE

WASHINGTON, D. C.,

Offers superior advantages for a thorough Business Education.

The course of instruction embraces Commission, Importing, Jobbing, Retailing, Bank and other Bookkeeping, Commercial Law, Arithmetic, Correspondence, Spencerian Penmanship and Business Practice.

PENMANSHIP is taught by Henry C. Spencer, the leading author of this system, and celebrated as the Editor of the "Spencerian Key to Practical Penmanship," adopted by nearly all first class Colleges as the standard of criticism. Unusual facilities are here presented for acquiring this valuable art.

The system of "BUSINESS PRACTICE," originated and successfully taught by the Proprietor, receives his special attention. This is the most valuable part of the course. Here the student applies his theoretical knowledge. He buys and sells representative mdse, makes out notes, drafts, invoices, &c., deposits College money in the Colleges Bank, and checks it out as his business requires. Becoming, in turn, Retailer, Wholesale, Forwarder, Banker, he soon acquires a knowledge of business forms, learns to compose and condense the history of every transaction and thinks for himself. He is thus prepared for actual business.

Full scholarship, good for review at any time, with Life Membership in this Union of Colleges extending to the principal cities, only $45. Books and stationery extra.

For circulars giving full information, for specimens of Penmanship, of the College currency and merchandise.
